Annwy rieni/ Dear parents and Carers

As some of you may have seen on the news and social media, the First Minister has announced that unless there is a significant reduction in cases of coronavirus before 29 January – the date of the next three-week review of the regulations – school and college students will continue to learn online until the February half term.

The Llanferres site will continue to remain open to children of Key Workers and vulnerable learners. If you would like to access this provision, please book in advance by emailing me on elizabeth.knight@denbighshire.gov.uk. Please could you also specify whether your child will need a school lunch. This will need to be paid for weekly.

All the teachers at Ysgol Bro Famau are working incredibly hard to provide high quality online learning. I am very proud of the way that they were prepared for this event. I am also grateful, once again, for the way in which our parents and children have embraced this remote way of learning.

Please keep in touch through SeeSaw, we love to see your posts.

Hopefully we will get through this together. Keep safe.

Mrs E. Knight
