Tree Sculpture
Maes Ysgawen Park

The area along the rear boundary in the woodland will be cordoned off on Friday 2nd October whilst the old ash tree stump pictured below is sculptured into an image of the Guardian of the Forest. All being well, the finished sculpture will include an owl and a fox.

According to mythology The Forest Guardian serves as a protector of the woods, ensuring the balance and harmony of the ecosystem. The figure is central to many myths, embodying the spirit of nature itself and acting as a guardian against those who would harm the woodland.

Please feel free to pop along to watch Rob Dalton at work anytime between 9 am and 4 pm but please don't distract him.
